

• REGISTRATION NOW OPEN •

The Pennsylvania Association for Infant Mental Health announces the:

9th Annual Pennsylvania Infant Mental Health Conference

Thursday-Friday, October 18-19, 2018

Sheraton Harrisburg-Hershey, Harrisburg, PA

Special Focus: Holding in Mind Children & Families impacted by Substance Use Disorder

Keynote Speakers:

Roy Wade, Jr., MD, PhD, MPH, MSHP, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia

"Childhood Stress and Urban Poverty: The Impact of Adverse Childhood Experiences on Health"

Ruth Paris, Ph.D., LICSW, Boston University School of Social Work and Amy Sommer, LICSW, Jewish Family and Children's Services of Greater Boston

"Best Practices for IMH Interventions with Substance Misusing Parents and Their Young Children"

Cathleen Palm, Center for Children's Justice

"Collaborating and Advocating for Children and Families: IMH in the Face of the Opioid Crisis"

Registration now OPEN! Click HERE to complete your Registration.

CEU applications are pending for LSW/LCSW/LMFT/LPC, Psychology, PQAS, and Act 48

PA-AIMH, with the support of the PA Project LAUNCH Partnership, is implementing Endorsement for Culturally Sensitive, Relationship-Focused Practice Promoting Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health®.

Each conference session will be aligned to a Competency Guidelines® knowledge area.

Please see our website for more information on Endorsement®.

For more information, visit www.PA-AIMH.org or e-mail pa-aimh@pa-aimh.org